

POSSIBLE ETHICS COURSES

LIBERAL ARTS ETHICS COURSES

CAS 083S/084S (GH) Communication Arts and Sciences First year seminar (3).
(Only when taught by Lori Bedell)

CAS 100H* (GWS) Effective Speech (3) Introduction to speech communication: formal speaking, group discussion, analysis and evaluation of messages.
(Only when taught by Lori Bedell)

CAS 373* The Rhetorics of War and Peace (3) This course explores how war and peace are advocated.

CAS 426W Communication Ethics (3) Ethical issues in public and private communication; role of communication in expressing and realizing individual and social values.

CMLIT 101* (GH;IL) Introduction to Western Literatures Through the Renaissance (3) Introductory comparative survey of European and American literatures of Ancient through Renaissance periods, considering genre, themes, cultural and literary values.
(Only when taught by Sophia McClennen as "Human Rights and Literature.")

CMLIT 101H* (GH ; IL) Honors Introduction to Western Literatures Through the Renaissance (3) Introductory comparative survey of European and American literatures of Ancient through Renaissance periods, considering genre, themes, cultural and literary values.
(Only when taught by Sophia McClennen as "Human Rights and Literature.")

CRIMJ 201 Legal and Ethical Issues in Private Security (3) Detailed examination of legal issues and ethical considerations in private sector security.

CRIMJ 465 Ethics in Criminal Justice (3) Ethical behavior in the criminal justice system.

LER 460 Human Resources Ethics (3) Ethics of human resources management.

PHIL 001 (GH) Basic Problems of Philosophy (3) Introduction to central philosophical themes, including the mind/body problem, the existence of God, ethical problems, the nature of reality.

PHIL 003 (GH) Persons, Moral Values and the Good Life (3) Major ethical positions and assumptions regarding questions of freedom, choice, obligation, and conflicts in contemporary moral conduct, values, and reasoning.

PHIL 014 (GH;US) Philosophy of Love and Sex (3) Explores Western theories and attitudes concerning intimacy and examines various ethical issues involving love and sex.

PHIL 103 (GH) Introduction to Ethics (3) Ethical theory about virtue, duty, autonomy, and life quality applied to moral problems, including character, violence, oppression, abortion, and suicide.

PHIL 105 (GH) Introduction to Philosophy of Law and Legal Ethics (3) Historical and contemporary philosophies of law; concepts of responsibility, property, rights, and justice; and ethical issues in legal practice.

PHIL 106 (GH) Introduction to Business Ethics (3) Studies ethical foundations of business and ethical problems in business practices such as advertising, international trade, labor relations, and marketing.

PHIL 118 (GH) Introduction to Environmental Philosophy (3) Considers the moral status of the environment and applies ethical theory to issues such as preservation, hunger, pollution, and sustainability.

PHIL 119 (GH) Ethical Leadership (3) Introduction to philosophical theories of ethics and leadership. Uses literary and biographical texts in developing skills of application. (Required for the Business and the Liberal Arts minor)

PHIL 123 (GH) Introduction to Ethics in Media and Journalism (3) Studies ethical problems, human values, and politics in differing media form and the ways media shape such problems and values.

PHIL 131 (GH) Introduction to Agricultural Ethics (3) Includes the study of animal rights, international development, environmental sustainability, biotechnology, social policy and justice, and agrarian community.

PHIL 132 (GH) (RL ST 131) Introduction to Bioethics (3) Studies questions of ethics in relation to biotechnology research and implementation, genetic engineering, medicine, animal and human rights.

PHIL 233 (GH) (S T S 233) Ethics and the Design of Technology (3) Ethics and individual and group decision-making in the design of technology including design projects and specific attention to institutional ethics.

PHIL 403 Environmental Ethics (3) Examines ethical theories, justice, rights, community, and human values revolving around such issues as preservation, conservation, pollution, sustainability, and population.

PHIL 405 Philosophy of Law (3) Examines philosophical views of the nature of law, legal ethics, law and society through questions regarding definition, interpretation, and institutions.

PHIL 406 Business Ethics (3) Examines the moral justification of business practices and economic systems through critical analyses of case studies and applied ethical theories.

PHIL 407 (S T S 407) Technology and Human Values (3) Interrelationships of twentieth-century technological change and human values. Emphasis on the social and ethical aspects of technological progress.

PHIL 418 Ethics (3) Examines ethical theories, justice, rights, community, and human values revolving around such issues as preservation, conservation, pollution, sustainability, and population.

PHIL 423 Philosophy, Media, and Society (3) Examines philosophical and ethical questions of communication, culture, information, ideology, and political and social organization through the forms of media.

PHIL 431 Philosophy and Agriculture (3) Studies philosophical and ethical questions regarding agriculture, politics, and policy, including food safety, environment, international development, community, and sustainability.

PHIL 432 (S T S 432) Medical and Health Care Ethics (3) Examines ethical, political, and social issues in the research, implementation, and practice of medicine, medical technologies, and healthcare.

PHIL 433 (S T S 433) Ethics in Science and Engineering (3) Ethical issues arising in the practice of science and engineering and their philosophical analysis.

PHIL 478 (PHIL 478, RL ST 478) Ethics After the Holocaust (3) Explores the philosophical effects of the Holocaust for thinking about the primary question: Is ethics possible?

PSYCH 105 Psychology as a Science and Profession (3) Overview of history and methods of psychology as a science and profession; applications and ethical issues in psychology.

RL ST 130 (GH) The Ethics of Western Religion (3) History of theological-social ethics of the Judaeo-Christian tradition.

S T S 245 (GS;IL) Globalization, Technology, and Ethics (3) An investigation of technology and ethics in the globalized world from contemporary, socio-cultural, and historical perspectives.

S T S 476 Technology and War (3) A survey and analysis of the interaction of technology, ethics, and warfare in the past and present society.

WMNST 458 (BB H 458) Critical Issues in Reproduction (3) Examination and analysis of the new reproductive technologies from the standpoint of medical ethics, feminism, and sociocultural influences.

Suggestions solicited from UG directors:

*Ethics enhanced