

Liberal Arts United Way Committee
Meeting Minutes
April 1, 2014

Members Present

- Barb Edwards, Amanda Goble, Faye Maring, Sean Moeller, Amy Schmoeller, Carolyn Umbricht

United Way Impact

- Amanda read an Op Ed from September 13, 2013, the Centre Daily Times that emphasizes the importance of community involvement, quoting Helen Keller, "Alone we can do so little; together we can do so much."

Wise Crackers Comedy Club

- We sold 80 tickets for the March 29 show, so our profit was $5 per ticket for a total of $400 for the event.
- Faye will contact Tom Bruce about scheduling a date for next season, preferably earlier in the year. We will not have a Valentine's Day flower sale next year, so this could be our February fundraiser.

Liberal Arts Cookbooks

- Barb found a box of about 20 cookbooks in a supply closet. The books were produced in 2008 as a fundraiser. Faye will send an email to the listserv that the books are on sale for $5 each.

Office Olympics

- Tentative date for 2014 Office Olympics is Tuesday, August 5, with a raindate of Thursday, August 7.
- Faye will check with Susan Welch and Barb will check with Chris Long to see if these dates are fine.
- Faye will check about having the Dean's Ice Cream Social in conjunction with the Olympics once again.
- How will the Burrowes Building construction impact the Olympics? Space should not be an issue, but noise could be.

Upcoming Meetings

- Next Regular Monthly Meeting: Tuesday, May 13, 9:00am, 114 Sparks (delayed one week from the regular schedule)
